

Mr. John G. Fullmer SR.

December 18, 1946 - April 20, 2019

Mr. John Fullmer, Sr., 72, of Sumner died Saturday April 20, 2019 at his residence.

A private graveside service will be held at Harmony Baptist Church Cemetery in Turner County.

Mr. Fullmer was born on December 18, 1946 in Akron, Ohio to the late Frank Wallace and Jeanette Fullmer. Mr. Fullmer had lived in Worth County since 1981. He served in the U.S. Navy and the U.S. Naval Reserve in Orlando, Florida from 1965-1971. Mr. Fullmer was employed with the U.S. Postal Service from 1969-2003. He was also a Minister of Music from 1983-2009. Mr. Fullmer was a member of the Worth Lodge #194 F & AM and the Mallory Baptist Association. He loved traveling, reading, singing, wood working, and making stained glass, but most of all, Mr. Fullmer enjoyed spending time with his family.

Survivors include his wife, Elaine H. Fullmer of Sumner; children, John G. Fullmer Jr. (Lisa) of Sumner and Johnda Reese (Tony) of Albany; grandchildren, Karradyne Carter, Allyson Bozeman (Sim), Belle Golden (Justin), Michael French, John G. Fullmer III and Haynes Sharpe; great grandchildren, Charlie Golden, Mackenzie, Tucker and Colton Bozeman; sister-in-law, Debra Hobby.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Fullmer was preceded in death by his sister, Janet Fullmer; brother, Frank Fullmer; niece, Jan Robichaud; sister-in-law, Diana Lynn Hobby; mother-in-law, Betty Wiggins Hobby; and father-in-law,

M.A Hobby.

For those desiring memorials may be made to the Baptist Childrens Home at 354 West Street, Suite 1 Valparaiso, IN 46383 or the Masonics Children Home at 14717 Nottingham Dr, Macon, GA 31211.

Please sign our online guest registry at www.banksfh.com.

Banks Funeral Home in Sylvester is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Mr. John G. Fullmer SR.

January 28, 2023 at 12:53 PM

“ Elaine and family, I'm so sorry for your loss. John was a good friend and will always be remembered for all his talents which he so readily shared. Heaven gained another angel for it's choir. I can imagine him singing with no pain, standing straight and tall. Love you all and praying for the peace that passes all understanding during these difficult days.

Leila

Leila Beanblossom - April 23, 2019 at 06:44 PM

“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss, Johnda. I lost my dad on the 19th of April, 5 years ago, and while the loss was almost more than I could stand the timing helped me an awful lot. By daddy going on to be with his God and Creator on the very weekend that we give thanks for the resurrection of God's only Son it helped me keep things in perspective. Jesus came to live among us knowing that He was going to have to die a physical death so that He could move up from the grave, take our sins away and take His rightful place with God. I know how painful the loss of your daddy is. But I pray that you will keep ALL of the great memories in the center of your heart and allow the not-so-wonderful episodes to ease into the forgotten past. I remember more wonderful times with my mom and my dad and have all but forgotten the times where I actually got the corrective measures that I so richly deserved. I know that you will do the same. I'm praying for you and your family as your daddy follows Jesus' lead and leaves his earthly body in the grave and his soul takes his eternal place at the feet of his God and Creator. After all, this is simply a step that we all must take. But what a blessing it will be to leave the troubles and worries of this earth and go on to the heavenly riches that God has promised all of us who accept Him and know Him as our God, Lord, and Savior. You will see your daddy again. Of that I am sure. And in the grand scheme of things, it will be much sooner than we may think. I know it hurts right now. I'm praying for you and your family constantly in the meantime. But may God grant you peace in the understanding that not only is your daddy in a much, much better place than he ever was here on earth, but he is actually in the only place that ever really matters to God's children. Your daddy is in heaven with his God, Johnda, and for that, we can all have peace. You are now, and always be in my deepest prayers.

Buddy

Buddy Alsbrook - April 22, 2019 at 09:38 PM

JR

Thank you so much Buddy!!! Your kind words are very heart felt...you always know what to say to make me feel better!!

Johnda Reese - April 23, 2019 at 04:45 PM

CB

“ Elaine and family, I was so sorry to hear of John's death. Please know that my love and prayers are with you at this time.
Carline

carline Bodiford - April 22, 2019 at 10:25 AM

RJ

“ So sorry for your loss. I will be praying for your family.

Ralph Willis, Jr. - April 21, 2019 at 11:05 PM

CY

“ Carol Roberts York lit a candle in memory of Mr. John G. Fullmer SR.

Carol Roberts York - April 21, 2019 at 11:05 PM

JS

“ Elaine and family, we are so sorry about John. He has fought a long battle. John was truly a good friend. God bless each one of you!

judy and mack sutton - April 20, 2019 at 07:25 PM

We truly appreciate your thoughts and kind words.
Sincerely, Lisa Fullmer and family

Lisa Fullmer - April 21, 2019 at 12:40 PM

PA

*There are no words to express our grief at the loss of John. He was a great man and will be missed by very much.
Love and prayers to all of you. Love to all!*

Penny Adams - April 21, 2019 at 05:24 PM

CY

Elaine and Family, please know that I am holding memories of you and John close and lifting you up in prayer. I saw his obituary tribute posted by Mr. Barfield. My heart hurts for you. John was a good friend to many, a man of many talents and a man of God. We know he is singing and rejoicing with the angels. Much love to you.

Carol Roberts York - April 21, 2019 at 11:01 PM