“ MY fondest memory of TERRY IS HE attended our homecoming with Ken and family at the Sylvester Free Will Baptist Church. I could look at him and tell he was in pain. I was sitting next to the end of the pew. So I asked him to sit with me. He sat down beside me, we visited a little bit, He was very friendly, sweet SPIRIT brother .We enjoyed the service together. God rest his soul . I know he will be missed.
