“ I dearly wish there was more time with him on this earth but am grateful for all the memories we made, for the life he lived, and for the chance to be his daughter in law. He truly cared about the people of his community, church, and family as he dedicated his life to helping others. It was such a blessing to see him and Debbie be grandparents and I pray I never forget how his face lit up when he was around them. He is going to be greatly missed here and my heart is heavy tonight, but I thank God for His saving and amazing grace because I know where Johnny is now.
