

Mrs. Joyce Lord Hobby

January 31, 1935 - February 21, 2023

Mrs. Joyce Lord Hobby, 88, passed away at Magnolia Manor in Americus on Tuesday, February 21, 2023.

The graveside service will be held at 11:00 AM, on Saturday, February 25, 2023, at Red Oak Church Cemetery in Doles. The Rev. Grady Morey will officiate.

Mrs. Hobby was born in Van Wert, OH to the late William Harold and Lenora Lord.

Upon her graduation from East Michigan University, she embarked on a decades-long career in public education.

Her journey brought her south to Thomasville, GA where, in 1977, she married educator and Pastor Glenn Hobby.

For 40 years, she was a beloved minister's wife, and could be found every Sunday singing in the choir, and sharing her loving smiles and kind words. With her gentle spirit, Joyce was loved by all who knew her, from her elementary school students, to the many church-goers she bonded with as "the Preacher's wife."

Joyce was a devoted Christian, and nothing was more important to her than her relationship with the Lord.

She is survived by her daughter, Stacy (David) Chambers; step-daughters Dawn Still (Russ) and Shari Cawley (Phil); son-in-law Guy Winklemann; grandsons Zach, Cody and Eli Winklemann, Dylan Shaw, and Chris Tripp; and sister-in-law, Charlotte Lord.

In addition to her parents, Joyce was preceded in death by her husband, Glenn V. Hobby; her daughter, Elizabeth "Liz" Winkleman; and her brother, William H. "Bud" Lord.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Red Oak Baptist Church Cemetery Fund, 633 Red Oak Rd., Warwick, GA 3179

“Oh I have so many sweet memories miss Joyce was so good to me growing up she did love the lord she also loved the girls Liz and Stacy! Stacy and we're best friends and miss Joyce took me into their circle. I know heaven is more beautiful beautiful this sweet lady was full of love and humor and that laugh! I know you are hugging Liz and while it won't be as good as your hug I will hug Stacy for you . I love you
