“ *Clay, Karen, and family,
I am so sorry to hear about your mother. I know there will be a void that only God can fill. I pray that he will wrap his arms of love around you and comfort you during this sad time. May His blessings and peace be with you in the days to come.*

“ Was so shocked to hear of Kay's passing. She was a good friend and I have missed being able to share time with her. I will always remember the times we shared together, the laughs, and the good food we always ate. I feel an empty place already in my heart just knowing I will never see or hear her again. Kay was a very good person with good morals and intentions. She had a heart of gold. Sorry, I can not be there tomorrow for the service. Please know that I loved Kay so much and I wish so much I could have said "goodbye." So very sorry for your loss. I love you Kay. Fly with the angels forever more.
