Mr. Kenny was a great man. A definition of father and friend to all. We only got to know him for a short time but he has had a lasting impression on us all. He's dancing with Jesus now.

“ Doogie was the best brother in law and friend you could ask for. We had great times growing up while he was dating my sister Debbie and after they were married. I remember after working in tobacco all week, we always went to the skating rink in Wills Lake. Those were great times. He is with Debbie and Jesus now forever...I miss them both.

“ *Mr Kenny & his wife were the perfect neighbors we could always count on them if we were not gonna be at home to watch our house and we likewise did the same for them, when we got the call that he had passed our family was so sad, their was a certain emptiness in our heart, so I can't even began to imagine what the family is going through, our prayers are with the family.
