“ Seems like I always had tears in my eyes around this girl! She was hilarious. One day though, sitting in her living room she had me crying tears of joy. We were doing a Bible study together that day (we shared some sweet times), and that day she prayed one of the most humble prayers I had ever heard. She asked God to forgive her of her sins and save her and she asked Christ to come into her heart. Kim was always so honest and open and didn't mind letting you know she had a lot of battles and struggles. I will surely miss that sweet, funny, honest girl. Loved her!!!

“ Kim and I had such a close relationship when we were teenagers. Although I didn't live close, we spent every minute together when we were visiting. We were more than cousins. We were friends. Though we drifted apart as we got older, I have so many fond memories of our times together. I hope she has finally found the peace she deserves. Godspeed Kim.
