“ Oh, Cheryl. I can't begin to tell you how it hurts to send you condolences for Kristi's passing. I know it must just seem unreal. Remember "death leaves a hurt no one can heal: love leaves a memory no one can steal". You were a terrific mother to Kristi. Hold onto all those good times. My love to you all!

“ My heart goes out to each of you for the loss of Kristi or CK as a lot of us knew her. Knowing her since she was a child through knowing her family I could tell many stories of memories I have of her. She was always a very close friend of my son’s growing up. All of them always got into some shenanigans fishing or just hanging out and they always knew the wet dirt roads. Kristi always had the determination and strength of a bear and amazed me when working for her family when processing our deer. With that strength also came a tender heart and she, like the other kids, also would call me at crazy hours of night needing to talk for guidance or just an ear. Often my phone rang at 2 am and I’d answer a text or call, “Ma or Mama T, I need to talk” Would often come out and I’d tell her like others “come on, I’ll make biscuits for us so you can eat and talk.” I don’t know if she ever made any for anyone, but she was certainly taught how to make homemade biscuits in the Biscuit club as we all jokingly called it. She had been trying to get a job and would call or text about it asking what she should do. She was beyond excited when she acquired her job at Lake Blackshear and called , “Ma, I got the job!” And there were times when she was off we would all grab the boat and go to Lake Blackshear to enjoy the relaxation. She helped anyone and everyone she possibly could with anything. She was a friend to so many, including my son and myself. He wanted so bad to come visit her bedside and I explained she had to rest to get better. We will always remember and love you CK. You were a beautiful and intelligent person with a heart bigger than I could ever describe. Prayers and hugs to each of you in her family.

“ Kristi is one of the most free spirited people I’ve ever met, and I know she would have wanted me to share this. Now, me and her have had some memorable times to say the least, however this is by far my favorite. I’ll never forget us going out on the boat with Trina, mom, Branden and Miss Cheryl. 😭 That day I thought I was going to pull us in to the dock. I reached out full arms length to grab the post, and I made it. However, the boat kept drifting out from under my feet, and ended up falling into the water right there in front of everybody. CK, without hesitation, jumps in after to me to try and rescue me 😭. As soon as we both get out of the water I looked at her and said, “You know, I can swim CK.” She responded, “Well, what if you couldn’t?! I’m not going to let any of my friends drown, especially not you.” Heart of gold is what sticks out in my mind when I think of her. I will truly miss our adventures CK. Love you forever sis.
