“ Our condolences and prayers. Our family has such amazing memories of Ms. Lorene. She was my mom's best friend and I spend many days playing in her backyard while my mom got her "hair done". I grew to understand that getting your "hair done" was so much more than just that. Sitting in Ms. Lorene's beauty salon was therapeutic. It did not matter what kind of day you were having, Ms. Lorene could always make you feel better about things and could always make you laugh. I am so grateful to have known her and had her in my life. And I am so grateful she was the one who gave all 3 of my kiddos their very first haircut. She had a gift.. She was a gift.

“ Grant, Craig and families, I am saddened to hear of Lorene’s passing yesterday. She was a wonderful, sweet lady that was like another mother to me. I can only imagine the reunions in heaven yesterday. In fact, I can hear Lorene, Sue, and Mama cackling in heaven now as they are catching up! Prayers for you all in the coming days. She was a beautiful soul!

“ Doug and Lorene were the best!! They had been our friends and neighbors for a long time. I asked Lorene who would buy her groceries after Doug passed away and she laughed and said "it wont be me. I dont go to grocery stores. She was always laughing and making jokes. I loved her so very much. She will definety be missed. Grant and Craig I know you will miss your Mom so very much. God bless both of you.
