

Mrs. Mamie Ellender Sullivan Vaughn

February 27, 1925 - February 23, 2020

Mamie Elenor Sullivan Vaughn, 94, of Cordele, passed away on Sunday, Feb. 23, in Warwick.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 27, at Banks Funeral Home in Sylvester.

Mrs. Vaughn, who leaves behind a legacy of Christian faith, devotion to family, and strong work ethic, was born Feb. 27, 1925, to the late James H. Sullivan and Nellie Evelyn Shirah Sullivan. She was raised in Colquitt County, where she married the late John Olin Vaughn on July 3, 1939, and was a sharecropper's wife for more than 20 years until they moved to Albany in 1957. She began working at the now-closed Viking Distilleries in Albany as a bottling line strip stamp operator. She worked there for 15 years and was described by her supervisor as "dedicated" to her job.

Mrs. Vaughn has been following Christ since she was 30 years old and was a member of Sunnyside Baptist Church, where she helped with Awana, was active in the Seniors Program, sang in the Seniors Choir and participated in the Seniors Quilting Project.

She enjoyed reading, traveling, shopping with her friend Betty Hall, and spending time with her children and grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her spouse of almost 36 years, her parents, and her siblings James Sullivan, Ruth Ellen Sullivan Wilson, John L. Sullivan, and Rozell Sullivan Ivey. Survivors include her children: Ronald Vaughn (Mary), Lamar Vaughn (Sherry), Judy Vaughn Davis (the late Hurley Davis), Jeanette

Vaughn Rogers (the late Tommy Rogers), Johnny Vaughn (Ruth), Shirley Vaughn Gauvin (Dennis), and David Vaughn (Becky); and 21 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren, and 14 great-great-grandchildren.

My mom is Dean Powell and I'm Jessica. I'm just now seeing this. Mamie was a dear friend of my mom's back in Albany until mom moved here. We are so sorry and mom will go to pieces when I tell her. Great friends are in your heart no matter where you move off too. Praying for you.
