“ I didn't know Mrs. Harris but as a member of Constructors for Christ I feel we were all members of a big family. My prayers go out to the members of her family. I pray that God will make this a happy occasion instead of a sad one because she is now rejoicing with God.

“ I remember Thanksgiving Dinners at Mrs. Harris's house. The place would be packed with people and food. I wasn't family but she always made me feel welcome. We would all bring our guitars and play and sing, she loved it, especially when we played Papa's Wagon and she sang along. I have fond memories of a wonderful lady that I cherish.

“ My prayers go out to the family of Granny Harris. Most of my Christian life has been spent going to church with Granny. She was always a Godly example of a Christian Woman and Mother, and I loved her dearly. I know Granny was very happy to hear the words "Well done good and faithful servant, Enter into the joy of the Lord"
