“ Aunt Martha was one of the sharpest women I have ever met. And, with that prowess came the wisdom, care, and love she used to create her greatest legacy, her family. I grieve with you all in her passing.

“ Many are the happy memories of my visits in the Hawthorne home. For several months I was den chief for a Cub Pack Den that met at their home (her bro. Wilson was a Cub.) Her mother played the piano on Sunday evenings at the Presbyterian church where my father was pastor, and I'd see her at church. She was always jovial and happy.

“ Martha, I remember your Mama heading up ya'll's big house on Cary Drive full of children younger than you as oldest. Your Mom amazed me by being so kind and never phased by so many kids around. I never did know how many younger siblings you had. Your Dad coached my ex, Mike Pugh, 2 yrs at AU (after you & I graduated from AHS). Mike also became a basketball coach so I was a coach's wife, like your Mama. That was a "job" and I didn't have any children then and I'd think of your Mama and wonder how your Mama did it with her crew at home. So your folks influenced my life after AHS more than you know. Thinking of all your family with many fond memories.

“ In Sylvester HS, we were part of a group boys and girls that dated, parked, met at each others house, shared cokes(each had their on straw) at Mullis Drug Store on Sunday afternoons. Then came college, some of us went to UGA, US Carolina, some even went to API. Remember the first time we met Bill Lynn, he towered over most of us. Martha great to have known you as a friend. Hank

“ In the short 6 years that I lived in Columbus I got to know my cousins and my Aunt Martha and Uncle Bill a lot more than in the previous years of living out of Georgia. I grew to love Aunt Martha a lot. She could be mischievous, funny, a fabulous mom and aunt. She put up with our childish pranks and testing the waters. She always shared her love and love of God with others. I have a lot of very good memories of Aunt Martha from summers in Sylvester and Auburn on Cary Drive and the new house that Uncle Bill built. She has truly been the icon and matriarch of our family and taught us all humility, love, strength and more, and has passed on the love of God and family that my grandparents instilled and taught to her. I will always carry that with me. I know all of the children, grandchildren and great grands and spouses will dearly miss her as will all of her friends and other family.
