“ What a wonderful friend she was what a wonderful woman she was and what a wonderful place she will have in heaven. I enjoyed putting flower bouquet so I would miss Mary she was so talented in that area. When I had the pleasure to be around her I listen to the story she had about the past years ago what friends truly were . She was one of the most grateful gracious women I've ever known beside my mom . God bless the whole family and I pray for you.

*Andrea.....just read about your Mother and wanted to express my sympathies....goodness what a long life she had; Mama was especially fond of her. Was recently in Sylvester to say goodbye to Mickey, he died on the 14th and was making the rounds of all the places you and I and our families shared through the years, including going by your old home. Now back in Palm Springs looking at Sylvester Local when I say the obituary for your Mother. Warmest regards to you and your family for your loss and I close with love for the wonderful memories we all shared in our many special years in Sylvester.....Steve
