“ My fondest memories of my grandmother are the times spent as a young girl, staying the weekends with her and my grandfather and shelling and snapping beans. Memories of how she loved to listen to bluegrass music, and always being there when the family was sick. She would always bring her home made chicken noodle soup or chicken potpie. I will deeply miss her. Till I see you again, I love you grandma.

“ I shall always have the fondest of memories of my Grand Mother. Though she will be missed, there is the comfort of knowing that through the pearly gates, what awaits her is the peace she so deserves in the presence of the Lord. Now we can all be rest assured that she is in the loving arms of Grand Pa as it is meant to be.
