“ So sorry to hear this. Such a sweet lady. Have many memories with her. Special ones were with Constructors for Christ. She always handed me to the keys to the Cadillac and we would go shopping. So much fun. I felt like her daughter. She would take me out to eat while shopping and many warm conversations. She will be missed. Prayers for all of you. Hugs for Mr. Fred and family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Aunt Mary had the most amazing sense of humor!!! I loved that mischievous twinkle in her eye!

I remember being a little girl at my Grandmother Harrison's house. We could hear a critter under the house scratching around. Aunt Mary kicked off her shoes and stepped into the tub. She started jumping up and down and yelling at the rat. What a mess pot! My cousins and I were so tickled over that.

Love and prayers to the family. ❤️🙏
