“ So sorry for your loss. Such a wonderful Christian lady who, even though we have known her for such a short period of time, left an impact on us as a shining example of Christ-like love for her family and friends and a spirit of giving with love and kindness. Such a person will be missed by all of us but we look to the day when we all be reunited forever. Prayers and love to you all.

We are so sorry to hear of 'Miss' Mary's passing. We sure loved her. She always had a sack of candy for my Grands when we attended church. She always called Dan, her boyfriend. A true Christian Lady.

“ We will miss you Sister Mary! You were always so loving and kind to all of us but especially the children. We will forever remember the "candy lady" from church and will be carrying on your tradition of never running out of ice cream or love at Providence Church.
