

Mrs. Melba Dorminey Brown

August 30, 1933 - October 2, 2020

Mrs. Melba Dorminey Brown, 87, of Bridgeboro, died on Friday, October 2, 2020, at Pine Shadows Retirement Manor. Mrs. Brown was born on August 30, 1933 in Worth County, to the late James Thomas Jr., and Mary Lois Golden Dorminey. She lived in Worth County the majority of her life. While the family would love nothing more than a public service to honor their mother's life, they have opted for a private graveside service in order to keep everyone safe and healthy. The private service will be held at Hillcrest Cemetery with the Rev. Bobby Joe Brown officiating.

Mrs. Brown was the office manager of the family business known as Brown Milling Company. Mrs. Brown enjoyed crossword puzzles, sewing, playing the piano, and working in her yard, but most importantly spending time with her friends and family, especially her grandchildren. She was a member of Bridgeboro Baptist Church where served as the Church treasurer, pianist and Sunday School teacher for many years.

Survivors include her daughters, Donna Crowe (Norman), Janet Hudson (Ronald) and Susan Davis (Richard) all of Sylvester; her sister, Vivian Horne; her grandchildren, Mack Park, Kathryn "Katie" McCutcheon (John Bates), Ben Hudson (Amber), Haiden Edore (Blake), Sam and Jake Varnadoe and Lauren Davis; and her great grandchildren, Cam, Case and Colson Hudson, Aldyn and Hudson Edore and Jack McCutcheon. In addition to her parents, Mrs. Brown was preceded in death by her husband, Donald Brown on September 13, 2017; and by her siblings, Linda Hathcock and Jerry Dorminey.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Bridgeboro Baptist Church (214 Second Avenue, Bridgeboro, Georgia 31705).

“ Growing up, cousin Melba was older than I so we didn't see each other often. As we grow older, age doesn't seem to matter anymore. Melba was in an exercise class that Carroll and I joined. It was a joy to see how serious she took those exercises. She was quite good at it and it showed. She was so loving of relatives and I loved her beautiful smile. She just cared and loved people. She played the piano at Worth Nursing Home in Sylvester and I was told she would ask the staff to give her names of the residents who had no one to visit them. She would go out and buy gifts for those people.

Missed her so much when we couldn't go to the exercise classes anymore.

Janet, Donna and Susan, praying for you as you grieve the loss of your Mother.

“ Donna, Susan and Janet, your mom is looking down on you today with smiles. She left behind an untarnished legacy of family love. Wow; she was a remarkable Southern lady. Memories serve me best of our great times, Susan, on the many band trips we shared together as band parents. She will be forever missed.

“ Susan, Janet, & Donna, I am so sorry. Losing the last parent is sooo hard. We know that she is rejoicing and praising Jesus, whole again. But our hearts are breaking. Your mom was one of my very best friends. I loved her so much. I love you too and I'm here for you any time.

“ Dear DONNA, it is 3:42 AM and I am up....so many things to PRAY about.

When our Mothers "go home to be with JESUS" --- WE know WE WILL SEE THEM AGAIN IN HEAVEN....but that does not make it any easier to give them up. You are now where I was on March 21, 2011---Heartbroken---and yet knowing your Dear Mother has been "CALLED TO COME HOME" to meet JESUS face-to-face---and for the first time ever---to see the magnificence of HEAVEN---and ALL that goes with living life as a Christian---She is now just beginning to experience the REWARDS of living her life as a FOLLOWER OF JESUS.

As we journey through this life---we have to endure trials and heartbreak at times that all but BREAK us---It is then and Only then that we realize we are not put here to live---we are put here "to learn to live" in preparation for our Eternal Life and ALL THE JOYS THAT COME WITH IT WHEN WE REALLY GET HOME.

I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH.
