They say a man's worth is best measured by the impact he has on those around him. His character. It was truly evident during this time, he was certainly worth more than his weight in gold. Pat had a genuine love for life and a heart as big as his personality. To know him was to love him. He will be missed by all who came in contact with him.

The family requests no flowers and donations may be made to Kathy Gail Oglesby, 716 N. Van Buren St., Albany, GA. 31701.

“ My heart breaks for you all. My thoughts and prayers will be with you all. May he R.I.P. and be an Angel looking down on you until you all meet again.

“ Mike and Family, I can only offer my deepest sympathy in the loss of your precious son. It seems like only a moment ago that we were but kids ourselves dreaming of the lives of our children. Although short it appears his legacy was rich in lives he touched and his memory will be remembered by many. Much hope comes in the knowledge there is life ever after and you will be together once again.
