“ *I remember Michael's smile. It's been a long time since we visited. I am so proud of his generosity and commitment to his family and community. My memories of Michael are as kids playing at Grammy's house or at his house in Hellertown. May Michael's find peace in his legacy and his love.

We were friends for over 40 years. He was always there for me. We had so many laughs through the years and continued that fun relationship even throughout his battle with Parkinson Disease. Mike was a good Christian man and his favorite book in the Bible was Daniel. He read it often. He also had a merry spirit and loved to give his nurses something to raise their eyebrows over!! Haha! As I watched him over the past year, I witnessed the fight going out of him. This was indeed sad to me and I knew I would be losing my friend. This I know for sure; his belief and faith in the Lord did not fail. I know he is now happy, joyous and free!
