“ On the road to go play a show, with the entire band in lawn chairs in the back of my van, I noticed the most beautiful sunset in the rear view mirror. I told the guys to check it out. Alan stared at it for a second and replied "that ain't man made". Rock on my brother.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with Allen's family. I knew him through Kathy. I was her best friend for many years! Allen took Kathy in when she had no where to go, and for that I will always be grateful to him. Even though they had a stormy relationship, I know he truly loved Kathy. RIP Allen....

“ Our world has lost a great man. Duter was such a kind heart. Several years ago he taught me a lot about sound and music. Even came out to where we were playing a few times to help me set up. If I ever needed him he was always a phone call away. He is missed by so many. My God wrap his arms around the family. Prayers

“ To Allen - Sorry that I missed your New Year's Eve "Messendger" concert, but thankful that I got to attend your 2010 and 2011 SmokeDream Reunion concerts. Brought back a lot of good memories.

To All - Although Allen was a couple years older than I, he was a positive influence in my life both as a trumpet player and a guitar player. I am thankful that I got to know his parents and his sisters, and his wonderful sisters will help us remember him.
