“ I don't know if you all will remember us or not but we attended Northside back in the day (Peggy and Billy Hilliard and Bruce and Linda and Cindy Whitley). We were friends with Mike the short time we lived there and saw him at some of the floral shows in years after. We are sorry to hear of Mr. Ogletree's passing. We pray that our Heavenly Father will wrap His arms around you all and give you a peace that passes all understanding. Will be praying for you all.

“ Catherine, Paula and Mike: So sorry for your loss. I was unable to attend the services for Clarence as I was in Kentucky on a Mission Trip with the church. He was a good man and a fine Christian (a great boss, too). He reminded me so much of my own Daddy. He loved to pull pranks. I shall never forget the time we went to eat with the church group and Clarence ordered a "turnip green sandwich" and the waitress brought him one. The look on his face was priceless! I know he is in Heaven looking down on all of us now and one day we will see him again. He may be gone but he is not forgotten. Love to you all. Kathy
