“ *Dear Richardson family,
I was so sad to read on his Facebook about what was going on. I'm so sorry for your loss. Just remember there is comfort in knowing that he is in heaven, and one day we will see him again. He was a great drummer, and a great person.*

“ Please accept my condolences on the untimely loss of your son and brother. Only eternity will reveal the positive impact he had on many individuals. He was so instrumental in making a segment of southern gospel music meaningful and enriching. Even as an aspiring, teenaged bass player many years ago I would often daydream about what it would be like to play alongside Tracy. Many thanks to you for allowing him to use his talents to be a blessing to me.
