She was a welder in the shipyard in Brunswick, GA during World War II and worked for Callaway Mills in Manchester, GA for a number of years before moving back home to work for Coats & Clark as a weaver. She retired from the Jamesville, NC Plant in 1981 and moved back home. She was devoted to her family and her church. She was a member of Poulan Baptist Church where she sang in the choir for many years. Gospel Music was a lifelong love for her.

Survivors include her 4 children; Runell F. Bouchard (Don) of Sylvester, Gloria Fambro of Augusta, GA, Harold Fambro (Kathy) of Nashville, TN, George "Tony" Fambro (Darlene) of Isabella; 5 grandchildren, Yvette B. “Gloria, Runelle, Tony and family: you are in our thoughts and prayers. Mama passed away last March 21, 2011....Jennifer is my only child, and was always Mama's heart.

Jennifer and I are still going through the grieving process.....I dread it for you all.

*Runelle, Jennifer just adored you when she went to school at WCHS for a quarter (1983, I think) I thought she just had to have at least a little touch from WCHS, I loved it so much.....she enjoyed it immensely....she said Richard made a complete nuisance of himself in class, as you will Remember!
Those two are still "Buddies!"*

I do love you all. Please know we care.
