“ *Audrey and Family,
I am sorry to hear of Mrs. Grace passing. I will miss her beautiful face and wonderful attitude. My Mother (Mrs. Jimmie Wall, her across the hall neighbor) also expresses her sympathy.
Look back at the good times you shared with her, these memories will help you through.
Blessings,

“ I remember Ms. Marshall as having a sweet voice and a kind word for everyone along with a great sense of humor. She was at a great many of our Hufstetler holiday dinners since my brother (Harold) was married to her daughter (Janice). I think that her name says it all "Grace". She was a lady with dignity and character and like my mother (Hazel) believed always in the right thing to do was what you should do. I know her family will miss her greatly and condolences are sent to all of the Marshall family,

“ I am a grandson of Willie Beaty, brother of Grace's mother. I remember going to their home in Scooterville when Grace was a child, but have not kept in touch. My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this time.
