“ I am going to miss my sister very much. We were very close. We shared alot of long talks on the phone where she would tell me about her day & i would tell her about mine. I would visit her at the hospital & prayed for the day she would go home again. But i take comfort in knowing GOD took her suffering away & she is now living in heaven where i will see her again one day.

“ there will only and ever be one real mema she will be missed by more people than you can imagine .She had so much love in her heart for other people,never thinking about herself. She was a true friend that you could cout on and really trust,confide in and talk to when you needed someone the most . She was a wonderful person and trully missed, but she will never be forgotten;;;;;
