

Mrs. Jolley McDonald

November 30, 1933 - August 30, 2012

Mrs. Louise Jolley McDonald, 78 of Sylvester, died Thursday, August 30, 2012 at Sylvester Health Care after an extended illness. She was the loving wife of the late Mr. Theophilus McDonald.

Mrs. McDonald was born and raised in the Gordy Community on November 30, 1933 to the late Clifford Eugene Jolley and Illa Rycroft Jolley.

She was a member of Providence Baptist Church and was formerly employed with Lykes, Inc.

She was a wonderful, loving mother, a fun grandmother and great-grandmother and an exceptional friend. She loved to cook, was an avid fisherwoman and truly had a "green thumb". Her beautiful flowers were enjoyed by all.

She is survived by daughter, Pamela M. Flanagan (Jim) Birmingham, Al.; son, Ricky McDonald (Terri), Leesburg, Ga. ; grandchildren , Heather F. Ross (Jared), J. Adam Flanagan, Rachael Swift (Jason), Becky Smith (Steven) and Rusty McDonald; great-grandchildren, Hannah Taylor Ross; J.R., Allison, and Austin Smith; Alexandria " Lexi " Swift; Sisters, Betty Ramsey (Ken) of Dayton, Ohio and Carolyn Eanes (Doug) of Weems, Virginia.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers, Richard (Peggy) and Gene Jolley and sisters Nadine Giddens and Lucy Pye.

The family would like to say a "special thank you" to the nurses, cna's and all the staff of Sylvester Health Care for their help during this very difficult time.

An "extra special thanks" to Connie Watson for helping to make her last days as enjoyable as possible.

Graveside services were held Monday, September 3, 2012 at 2pm immediately following visitation at Antioch Baptist Church.

Pallbearers were Dr. Jim Flanagan, Adam Flanagan, Tim Hathcock, Jamie Jones, Mike Jones, and Jason Swift.

Banks Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
