

Mrs. Methvin Gammage

January 20, 1924 - April 8, 2012

Mrs. Glenda M. Gammage, 88, of Sylvester died Sunday, April 8, 2012 at Phoebe Worth Medical Center.

The funeral service will be held at 2:00 PM on Tuesday April 10, 2012 at the First Baptist Church with interment to follow in the Hillcrest Cemetery. Dr. Ben Bush will officiate.

Born January 20, 1924, in Rome, GA to Dr. Samuel Robert and Mildred King Methvin, she grew up in Lindale, GA and had made her home in Sylvester since 1942. Mrs. Gammage was a member of First Baptist Church and former Sunday School Teacher. Her love of flowers was evident as a charter member of the Spade and Trowel Garden Club, as a former National Flower Show Judge, and owner of the Quail's Nest Florist and Gifts. In her early years she enjoyed being a Cub Scout and Girl Scout Leader. Later in life she was a devoted "Pink Lady" volunteer at Phoebe Worth Medical Center. She was blessed with many talents in cooking, sewing and painting, but these were all superseded by her great love and care for her family, the Lord and people or animals in need. She truly never rested and was a caregiver to all.

Survivors include her daughters, Mary King Givens and Lila (Jim) Phelps of Sylvester, and Deirdre (Philip) Troyer of Bradenton, Florida, five grandchildren, Jamie (Jonathan) Judy of Statesboro, GA; Sam Phelps of Sylvester; Mary Van Jeffords of Tallahassee, Florida, Julia (Edward) Florack of San Angelo, TX, and William Troyer of Bradenton, FL; a sister-in-law Jessie Gammage of Columbus, GA.

She was preceded in death by her husband, D.L. Gammage, Jr., son, Samuel Methvin Gammage, and son-in-law, James R. Givens, M.D.

The family will receive friends Monday, April 9, from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM at Banks Funeral Home.

In Lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the First Baptist Church, P.O. Box 309, Sylvester, GA, 31791, Margaret Jones Public Library, 205 Pope Street, Sylvester, GA, 31791, or Best Friends Humane Society P.O.BOX 5894, Sylvester, Ga., 31791.

“ We were friends of Glenda and her family when we lived in Sylvester. We are very sorry for her loss. Remember me to Mary Thomas, her niece, who I worked with at the Base for years. We also remember Mrs. Methvin, fondly, as well as the Gammage sister. Fond memories!!!

“ Mary King, Lila and Dierdre: You are in our thoughts and prayers. We understand your loss all too well. We lost both of our dear Mothers last year.....we are still grieving---just to hear their voices again would mean the world to us now.....but we will---when we are reunited in Heaven...

The Blessings that we shared with our Mothers, and that you have been able to share, in GOD allowing each of us to have them for a long time is a gift from the LORD--we recognize this, but it is really tough.
