

Mrs. Patterson Carter Berry

March 30, 1924 - January 31, 2011

Doris Patterson Carter Berry, 86, of Sylvester died Monday January 31, 2011 at Phoebe Putney Memorial Hospital.

The funeral service will be held 11:00 AM, Wednesday February 2, 2011 at New Hope Baptist Church with interment to follow in the Church Cemetery with Dr. Mike Carter and Rev. Tim Bozeman officiating.

Mrs. Berry was born March 30, 1924 in Sumner, GA, to the late James Alfred and Myrtie Leola Beaty Patterson and lived in Worth County most of her life. She retired from Sylvester Textile as a quality control supervisor. She was a member of the New Hope Baptist Church and a former Sunday School Teacher. Mrs. Berry was very involved in her church and loved making blackberry and peach jam.

Survivors include a daughter, Betty Sue Story of Sylvester; son, Thomas E. (Tommy) Carter (Sue) of Aiken, Sc, grandsons, Brian Carter (Nanci), Ty Carter, Tim Bozeman (Amy), and Ted Bozeman (Sandy); granddaughter, Tanya Grimsley (Michael), 14 great grandchildren and a brother, Lamar Patterson of Sumner.

Mrs. Berry was preceded in death by her husband Walter Earl Carter who died on August 13, 1973.

The family will receive friends on Tuesday (TODAY) from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM at Banks Funeral Home.

Sign our online guest registry at www.banksfh.com.

Banks Funeral Home in Sylvester is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Patterson Carter Berry

January 28, 2023 at 12:53 PM

“ Aunt Doris was a special person in my life. I will always cherish her memory and appreciate the positive influence she had on my life.

Traci Sikes Williams - March 22, 2013 at 08:59 AM

“ *Aunt Doris taught me how to do Cermaics. I loved every Monday night going and painting and listening to Dolly Partin on the radio. Those are fun memories of Aunt Doris. We loved her.
Theresa,Bobby,Lindsay and Chase*

Theresa Littleton - March 22, 2013 at 08:59 AM

“ *Dear Tom, Sue and family. We are so sorry for your loss. Sorry we could not make the visitation. Thinking of you at this time with love,
Larry and Sandy*

Larry and Sandy Almand - March 22, 2013 at 08:59 AM