“ *Our thoughts and prayers go out to each any everyone of Betty's family.
I have many great memories of the times she and I spent together before I moved away. We spent many an hour talking, eating and shopping. I regret the miles separated us these past years.*

Sylvia Simpson - March 22, 2013 at 08:59 AM

“ It was our extreme pleasure transporting Ms Betty in her last days. Thank you for touching out lives. May your family find the peace and strength to get through this difficult time.

HI

“ I pray for peace for Mr. Gary and everyone. Mrs. Cook taught me so much: endurance, strength, can do attitude. I have many fond memories because of her and have thought about her often over the years.
