“ Caroline, I was reading the Albany Herald obits tonight, and saw your dear Mother's name.....I remember how adorable your Mom and Dad were together.....where you saw one---the other was right there.

They seemed to so enjoy each other's company! Whenever Mama and I would go to Albany, to have a delicious meal, and just spend some special time together---there they would be---smiling at each other and talking....just enjoying each other and everyday living...

Mama and I talked about it from time to time...she said: "All marriages ought to be like J. W. and Celeste's marriage."

Mama died on March 21st. She would have been 91 in August. She had a cute sense of humor, and I am thinking right now about one of her darling "sayings" throughout my life at times-----

She would sometimes say when it was 'appropriate' to me: "You sho' know what you talk'n bout girl!" and she would smile real big. And, Mama surely knew a good marriage when she saw one, didn't she!

I love you and David, and my other two Banks Brothers. GOD Bless and Comfort you now, and in the days ahead....we are all going to need HIS Comfort.
