

Mrs. Patricia Ann Varner Beam

November 27, 1941 - June 27, 2022

Mrs. Patricia Ann Varner Marshall-Beam, of Albany, GA., died on Monday, June 27th, 2022 at Pruitt Health Palmyra in Albany due to complications of Alzheimer's Disease.

A private interment will be held at the Red Oak Cemetery.

Best known for her family and close friends as "Pat", she was a native of Sycamore, GA, and relocated to Albany as a young girl with her family, father Reuben Varner, mother Edna, and two sisters, Nell and Betty. Pat was a long-standing member of Victory Tabernacle Church of God in Albany. She retired early from Coats & Clarks of Albany to be a fulltime mother. She was the widow of William Daniel Beam.

Survivors include her children, Alishia Ann Marshall Shockey, Teresa Ann Beam Brown, and Stephen Daniel Beam all of Albany; grandchildren, Brooke Nichole McGee Steelman, Alishia Marie Brown Williams, (named after her aunt Alishia Ann Marshall Shockey), and Jacob Clay Beam; one great granddaughter, Rosalie "Rosie" Marie Williams.

Prior to her final days, Patricia asked that no services will be held. Her family is honoring her request.

Please sign our online guest registry at www.banksfh.com.

Banks Funeral Home in Sylvester is in charge of arrangements

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Patricia Ann Varner Beam

January 28, 2023 at 12:53 PM

“ Moma is who I called her, but other than Jesus I had no better friend. The greatest gift my moma gave me was raising me up in Gods house where I heard the gospel, the Truth. Her prayers for me through the years is one the greatest reasons I'm still alive. See ya soon moma, love your only son.....

Daniel Beam - July 03, 2022 at 08:30 PM

“ We've never met your mom, but I'm sure she was an amazing person. Sending love and prayers for you and your family. Calie&Joi

Calie Thurman - July 02, 2022 at 12:45 PM