“ I have fond memories of Phillip and his sisters. I loved to visit visit them and did many times while I was young. Phillip taught me to ride horses. I recall Phillip showing me how to ride a horse bareback while standing on its back without holding the reins. Fortunately, only his pride was hurt when he fell and tore up about 50 feet of blue lupine. Phillip was a mentor for me as we grew into young men. I am thankful for that. He was honest, truthful and one of the good ones. I will always see his smile and hear his voice calling me "bubs". I am thankful that God shared Phillip with me.
