Uncle Raymond, no father figure has ever been as loving to me with words of kindness and support throughout my entire life, more than you. No matter what, you always loved me and encouraged me. You could not have been a better uncle to me. Aunt Eva Jane, I love you dearly. I am so sorry for what ya'll have been through. I think I can feel a little of your pain. You have always set an example for me with your family. You have been my role model in our family and I have tried to walk in your footsteps. You are a very strong lady. May God bless and the Holy Spirit comfort. Love Always from Leshia (and Tom) Sattler

“ So very sooty to hear this news. Mr. Raymond was a wonderful man. He use to stop by here and talk with Jerry and I. I always enjoyed watching him and Jerry when they got together don't know which one of them was the most excited. Mr. and Mrs. Howell came to Jerry's surprise 50th birthday party and we enjoyed them so much. He was a wonderful man and friend our Prayers are with each of you. Please give Mrs. Howell my Love.

Mrs Louise, appreciate your thoughts & prayers. Raymond & Jerry always had a great time discussing family history & local historys. They were good friends. We were so sorry when we learned belatedly of Jerry's passing. Now maybe they are together, meeting those they researched the family history about!! & Together!! We always enjoyed getting with you & Jerry. Take care. Our prayers have been for you.
