“ We were fortunate to have Rhonda's friendship. She was vital part of Northside Baptist Church. Her smile would always light up the room. She was wonderful in her interaction with children. One of the most loving and giving ladies ever. May the Lord comfort the Seymour. Rigsby and Karvonon families with sustaining love, comfort and precious memories.

My thoughts and prayers are with Rhonda's family/ She is probably one of the sweetest people I ever met! She always had a smile on her face. I came to know the Rigsby family through Northside Baptist Church. After we went back to our home church I would see her around sometimes in Albany, Sylvester, and sometimes in Tifton and she was just as friendly and nice to me as she had always been. I last saw her in Tifton after this virus stuff had started. We always stopped and chatted at least a minute or two. I kept up with her and her beautiful family on Facebook. The world would be a much better place if there were more people like Rhonda! I am reminded of the song that has the words "let others see Jesus in you." You could see Jesus in Rhonda. May God Bless her family and give them the strength and grace to face each day. May he give them comfort in this time of loss and in the days to come. Jayne Carman
