“ I’m so sorry for your loss. Sending prayers 🙏 And hugs 🤗 to all of y’all. I met Robert when Kris was in my kindergarten class. He was wonderful dad and was always smiling. We have kept in touch over the years. He always called to keep me updated on Kris or if he had a teacher question.
He had a great sense of humor (I laughed until I cried the last time we spoke.. He will be dearly missed.

“ Dear Mr and Mrs Still and Khristopher and all family, what a servant’s heart Robert had as Jesus worked in his life and heart and made him different! Parents, be proud of your son... he truly was a blessing to us all. We are so thankful to have known him and to have had him in our lives. Our family will always remember how he came to us when Daddy was sick with cancer and how he showed up just when we needed him when Daddy passed...Again, Robert came with Khristopher when he knew my sister had passed just recently.
Robert came in compassion and love to show he cared.
Khristopher, all the while as he brought you with him, your Dad was teaching you how to be more like Jesus. I close my eyes and see Robert smiling, laughing and looking with such love and pride at you Khristopher! Stay on the path your Dad walked with you Kristopher, keep seeking and serving Jesus and growing into the amazing young man God has ordained for you to be! We love you and your Dad. Robert will be so missed! Joy West (and James West and Mary Harvey)

“ *Robert's son Kris was in my Sunday School class. I admired him taking care of his son by himself. He worked some Sundays and it was difficult for him to get Kris there but he would send him by a friend. So sorry Kris about your father's death. I will be praying for you and your family.
