“ One memory I have of my dad is of when I was little. The most vivid memory is when I was with dad for Christmas time and he had this little Christmas tree in the living room along with the big huge tree however I was more interested in the little one as this tree was beautiful and dad had decorated it with the most beautiful lights and he had little elfs climbing the ladders and he told me that the elfs would work when we were sleeping and I remember wanting to hold one and dad let me hold one but told me to be careful with him as he's little like me. After dad put him back on the ladder he tickled me and we laughed and I'll never forget that night. Those who are unaware, I'm Ronalds son. I find it upsetting that I was left out of his obituary though it's not surprising as his wife dislikes me for reasons I still don't understand. Dad, I love you and miss you.

“ Stephanie my hearts is truly broken for you, I know your world has been shattered. I will miss your daddy dearly. I started my day with him at the truckstop for many years as you know. My mornings now will never be the same . I hadn't even gotten used to him not ordering for Mrs. Ruby yet. Monday was our favorite cause we could discuss how long the week would be lol, and how tired we still were from the week before. I know he loved you very much and was conscious to make make sure he didn't forget your breakfast on Monday and Wednesday. I am always here if you need me.
