“ I became friends with Ronnie Kilcrease through crop insurance. His devotion to his farmers and his friends was legendary. He and my father were the kind of friends that borders on brotherhood. I watched Ronnie support my father when my mother passed away and I felt that same loving support as he stood beside me when I lost my father. I can still see him sitting in my living room just in case I needed something. The world is a better place because Ronnie Kilcrease lived and I pray his legacy will live on through all of us as we strive to be half the friend he was. Linda and family I am simply heartbroken for your loss. I KNOW you will hear his laughter and feel his love and guidance all the way from heaven. I also know that another Ronnie greeted him at those Pearly Gates. With my deepest sympathy and all my love. Melody Godfrey Burke
