“ How special my aunt Sara was to me. She would come in to WV and visit when I was a little girl and I remembered how I would look so forward to those visits. The love of God shined in everything she did. She is now with her Savior in heaven happier than she has ever been. She will be missed down here on earth.

“ Aunt Sara was a good Christian lady and I truly enjoyed visiting her and Uncle Robert and the wonderful talks we shared about the Lord.... Now she has gone to a better place and her home is final.....my prayers are with her family and may we all rejoice for another one sits at the table and the gates has opened for yet another one of his children.To have known her as my aunt was truly a blessing,.....connie

“ She was a lady of few words, but what she talked about was her Lord Jesus, and her family. She will be missed.
