“ Arnold and Family. I was so sorry to hear about Bonnie's illness and untimely death. It has been years since I have seen any of you but Thank God I have some very good memories. Just know that all of you will be in my thoughts and prayers in the days, weeks, and months ahead. I share your loss, but I am so thankful God called here home and has relieved her of all pain and suffering.

“ I was just reading Bonnie's obituary after almost three years. My youngest aunt, only 11 years older; It doesn't seem like she's been gone that long. To read in print and then realize how much family is now gone brought tears. PaPa & Granny Smith, Aunt Dean & Uncle Daniel, Mary, Carroll, my Daddy, Bob...so many of the those that helped raise me and the other cousins..those who used to gather with the rest of the family and tell those wonderful stories of life events, stories from our childhood, their voices now silent.

I miss you, Bonnie Davis. Never again will I hear you call me Dondoodle or Dooly in your slow, heavily southern voice. Never in my life will I forget how, when I was 5 years old, you held me tightly to your chest and rocked me at PaPa & Granny's for what seemed like hours, crying, while the other adults were frantically whispering, answering phone call after phone call and going to other rooms to talk privately. I was terrified, and I knew it had something to do with my parents because they were the only ones not there. That was the day Mama lost her right hand in the accident at the store. You are the one person I remember from that day. You were always protective of me, even after I became an adult. My regret is how those last few years ended, not telling you how important you were in my life. I miss your voice. I miss your stories. I miss your laugh. I miss you, Bonnie.
