“ So sad to hear of Sherill's passing. He was such a nice person. I know my dad enjoyed spending time with him tinkering on cars or other projects. Sherill told dad when Dad was diagnosed with diabetes that he kept his sugar under control by walking. Driving home from work I would often see Sherill walking along the road from his house.

Bless your family and may your good memories provide comfort through your loss.

“ It is with great sorrow that we write this. Sherill was one of Randy's life long friends. I came to know him better when Randy and I married. He was the type guy who would do everything he could to anyone who had a need he could meet. We loved him and will miss him. Randy is recovering from heart bypass surgery, therefore we are unable to attend services. Please know that y'all are in our prayers.
