“ To know her was to love her and be loved in return. You could always count on her to be wearing that million dollar smile, and be the true example of “This too shall pass.” She never let anything shake her, nor let anyone she loved ever feel like they were going through anything alone. Her passing has left a void no amount of time can fill. I’ll see you later “Grandma”, until then I hope you’re enjoying your time catching up with your loved ones and playing some pool.

“ Aunt Shirley was my Mama's sister. Some of the best times were listening to the 2 of them talk and joke around. Now they are reunited. I am Laquita's oldest daughter Kathleen.
