“ Stacey we will miss you. Play that bass loud when you get to the Pearly Gates so Dad, Reg, and many others will know that you are home.

Jo Odom - May 14, 2018 at 04:51 PM

“ Bluegrass has lost an irreplaceable picker. I have lost an irreplaceable friend. Everyone who knew Stacy has lost a friend, a gentleman, and one of the best men I ever met in my life. My prayer is the Stacey's family will be comforted by our heavenly father.

Billy Mooney - May 14, 2018 at 04:51 PM

“ So sorry to hear of Stacey's passing. I remember him from childhood (two doors down on Branch Road). My sincere sympathy to the family.

Vicki McMillan Copelan - May 14, 2018 at 04:51 PM

“ So sad to hear of Stacey's passing. We talked to him a short time ago. We met him at a Bluegrass Festival and became friends. He was an amazing song writer/singer and played several instruments. He didn't know a stranger and always made you feel welcome, whether at their campsite or home. He will be missed by all.

“ *Trena and Family, I am so sorry for the passing of Stacey. Stacey was a wonderful and kind person who always surrounded himself with laughter. Please hold your memories close to help you through this. God truly just received one worthy person and angel. I am sure there is some beautiful music being played in the heavens!
Love you all very much.*

“ I am a friend of Stacey's from way back. I hadn't seen Stacey in over 30 years until Rickey passed away and I saw him at the funeral. I always thought a lot of Stacey; he was always fun to be around, never a dull moment if you were in Stacey's presence. I pray that he is with our Lord and Maker today playing his guitar and singing praises to him. I also pray that his family (which most of you have probably never heard my name) will be comforted in knowing he suffers no more, and you will see him again someday.
