“ I started at Comcast back in the 90's. Steve would explain different technical aspects of the business. Always friendly and happy. Such a good person. So sorry to his family for their loss. Prayers for comfort.

“ Stave made it so easy working with him. He enjoyed teaching all of us about new and upcoming technology. He was always so helpful. Thank you. Sending prayers for your family to ease the pain and stress in their hearts. God bless.

“ I read Linda Johnsons memory. It was a great one. That day we stopped to see Trisha and Steve was a memorable one. I sat on the couch and watched. Ok maybe you had to be there but it was comical. The cat ran by first, then the two dachshunds, then Steve, Trisha and Linda off to one side of their mobile home. A minute later they all ran to the opposite side of their home. Yep one more time there they all went again back to the other side. Steve finally caught the cat. It was like something out of a movie! I started to work at Southern Cablevision with both Steve and Bill. I was certainly blessed to have called both of them and their families friends for all these years. Steve always called me youngin, but was only 7 yrs older than me. Thank you Trisha for always staying in touch. I only have Steve's number, which appears to have been turned off. If you need any help, please don't hesitate to call me. I have a truck and would be happy to drive up and help you move. We definitely lost another good one.

“ I love Steve & Trisha. Steve and my husband Bill worked together over 40 years. Trisha & I were even pregnant at the same time. (Over 50yr ago). They are sweet friends and I sure missed them when they moved to GA. I remember Pam Workinger and I visited them in GA. I had my 2 dachshunds with me when Pam & I stopped by. We were sitting in the living room and the dogs spied their cat and they started running back & forth the length of the mobile home, from bedroom to bedroom. Pam was sitting on the couch watching the 3 of us running back & forth after the dogs and cat. She was laughing so hard. What a fun memory. Also when my Bill passed away, Steve would call me almost daily to pray with me. Such a sweet friend! Now he and Bill are fishing together in heaven.
