“ Steve was a fraternity brother of mine at AGR. He was such a nice person and a wonderful friend. Tim Moore and I went by his house several months ago and visited with Steve, and we had a great visit. Steve was a great friend and made friends easily wherever he went. We pledged the same fraternity (AGR) at UGA and got to know each other well throughout our time at school together. Never a cross word, Steve was liked by everyone he met and had a great personality. He was a strong Christian and for that we can take comfort that he is no longer in any pain and will be with his Heavenly Father.

“ Condolences to Steve’s daughter and all of the family. Steve was a special guy. We worked together at P&G when he tried his hand at another type of work. Farming kept calling him and he left to return to growing crops. He’ll be missed by many. He’s whole and without pain. Rest easy Steve. Keep watch.

“ Living in the same fraternity house with Steve, I can't say that I knew him like a real brother but I can say, without hesitation, that Steve never said an unkind word about anyone, never complained about anything and was a loyal friend to all the fraternity brothers. He was jovial, humble and enjoyed laughing with us all. He led an exemplary Christian life and I dare say he left this world without ever making an enemy. He knew his name was written in the book of life and was always optimistic and easygoing. He loved his family dearly and will be missed by many who had the pleasure to have known him.

“ Where to start. Steve was a kind and gentle soul who was so loved by so many for numerous reasons, myself included. The world has lost a little bit of its light with his passing. Steve and I met at UGA when we were both pledging/joining AGR Fraternity. He as a brother and me as a little sister/sweetheart. Those were the best of years with our close friendship being a highlight. After graduation we all went on with our various careers and lives, but I always thought about and missed him. We'd recently been back in touch and enjoyed calls and texts. I can't believe he's now gone. He takes a little piece of a lot of hearts with him. Mine included.
Rest in peace my sweetest friend.

“ Steve was definitely one of the good ones!! The last time we saw him was at Carroll's Sausage in Sylvester. He was leaving but got out of his truck and, as usual, gave me a hug and shook Bobby's hand. We will miss him, but we know he is healed and no longer suffering. We are praying for peace and comfort for his family and friends.
