“ Jessica Thomas Hines

Sudie Cross was my aunt. I just came across this obituary as I have been searching for my relatives on my mother's side. My mother was Sudie 's sister, Bernice Green Thomas

I only met Aunt Sudie once.. when I was a kid. But I have never forgotten her. She was very sweet and kind. She was a great cook (like mom)! The best home made sausage I have ever eaten I had at her house. It was delicious! I discovered she was a seamstress as my mother was. I must have missed that gene.

Anyway, Rest in peace, Aunt Sue. See ya on the other side.. .

“ Momo, words cannot express the grief I feel right now. I am only comforted knowing you are with Papa, Jr., Momma, and Melissa now. I hope you are all dancing together in heaven. I am forever grateful for the wisdom you shared, the strength you expressed (still in awe of those Kung Fu moves you used to kick the door down and rescue me when it got stuck), and the special moments, tears, and laughter we shared over the years. I love you with all my heart and will miss you terribly; life will never be the same. As you taught me, however, I will stand tall and will bravely move forward, despite how broken I feel inside. Please watch over us and keep us safe. We will see you again.
