“ It is so very hard to even think of writing a memory of you on this site. I was just talking to you about how much better you were doing - how you beat it, how you had come so far. You told me how you worked really hard to get back and how it was tough but worth it. I can't get that conversation out of my head and my heart. I had more things to tell you, more visits to do when I came back to GA. Lunch with you and Yvonne again.

RIP dear friend. Our rekindled friendship was way too short. Say hello to Gina for me.
