“Buddy, Tony & Teddy, we love you all and we will miss your Mama. The times we all had together growing up are memories we will never forget.

I just wanted to share a funny story about when our Amanda was little. Daddy had to go to the emergency room in Sylvester. He drove himself there with Mama & Amanda in the truck with him. For some reason, he was admitted that day. Mama always had trouble with her eyes, so she didn't drive. Amanda had never known her to drive and thought she couldn't, so she pitched such a fit and just wouldn't ride with Mama. She had to call Thera to drive Amanda home. I will never forget your Mama telling about all the way home that Amanda was watching and saying "see she ran off the side of the road, she crossed the line". Thera would just laugh about it. I don't remember exactly how old Amanda was, my guess would be 4 or 5. In my mind, I can just see Thera telling that story now.

Love and prayers for you all,

Tracy & Ricky
