

Travis Daniel Hughes

January 18, 2006 - September 10, 2023

After 17 trips around the sun, Travis Daniel Hughes, of Sylvester, GA, entered the Heavenly arms of Jesus on September 10, 2023. The funeral service will be held at 11:00 AM on Saturday, September 16, 2023, at First Baptist Church Of Sylvester, interment will follow in the Isabella Cemetery. Dr. Jason Jones will officiate. Gracing the world on January 18, 2006, Travis was the joy of his parents', Paul and Maria Hughes, lives. With his infectious laugh, perpetual smile and over-the-top personality, a kinder, more compassionate, more generous soul will never be met. Travis loved his family and friends with enormous capacity and strength. He was an only child by birth but had many brothers and sisters who loved him just as passionately, and he was never seen without one or more of them. Travis was enthusiastic about all things outdoors, whether it be hunting, fishing, or just hanging with friends by the pool or a bonfire. He never met a stranger and would often engage people just to make them smile or laugh, always ready to lend a hand or a hug, whatever the situation called for. His spirit was just too vast to ever be contained within one circle of friends, that's why he had many. Travis was a go-getter of hobbies that ranged from sports to music, to jokes. He could often be seen riding his skateboard through Sylvester from one adventure to the next before he got his driver's license and his beloved truck. If there was an event happening, no matter the size or location, you would find Travis there, cheering the loudest, dressed the craziest, and showing his spirit for the team. As a member of Isabella Baptist Church, Travis participated in Youth activities and would help the Brotherhood in their ramp building endeavors, always ready to spread the love of Jesus however he could. "Trapper," as he was affectionately called by family, had big plans for his future after graduating, being in the class of 2024. He had dreams of becoming a welder and traveling. He was excited to begin the next chapter of his life seeing places and experiencing new things so he could share all the details with his family and friends. This magnificent person will be missed by everyone who encountered him, no matter the length of time. He is survived by his parents, Paul Hughes and Maria Hughes; his grandparents, Ron and Sue Rodriguez, Sharon F. Hughes, and Doug and Pegi Hughes; his aunts and uncles, McGee Strickland, Daniel Rodriguez, Reahana Rodriguez, Andrew and Kellie Hughes, Lenna Kirksey, Jason Semrau, and Gail Phillips; along with great aunts, uncles and many close cousins. The family will receive friends on Friday from 6:00 PM until 8:00 PM at Banks Funeral Home. The loved ones who were waiting for him in Heaven are his uncle's Travis Dale Hughes and Jason Willis Strickland.

“ Lee and I remember when Maria and Paul brought that sweet little baby home. Watching him grow up and become a respectful, helpful and happy young man was such a blessing. And he accepted Jesus Christ as his personal Savior, what an awesome day that was for him and his mama. I envision him entertaining the Saints with his genuine honesty, stories and most of all his laughter! His smile lit up every place he went. May God grant his parents, family and his very large group of friends the mercy and comfort to get through the days, months and years ahead. 🙏 Until we see you at the gates of heaven for that reunion in the sky!! Lee and I miss you Trapper! 🥹

Trust and rely on the love and support of family, friends and church to help keep you strong during these emotionally crippling times. Our hearts ache for you. We pray for your pain and tears of sorrow to be replaced with smiles and tears of joy one day soon. Know how blessed you were to have had him in your lives as you reminisce through the memories Travis created in and left behind for you to hang onto and help you through these times. “ I was just using a story about him last week as to why students shouldn't run around the room. In 6th grade Travis tripped over the leg of a desk and knocked himself unconscious and scared me silly. I remember standing over him saying, “Boy, you better not be joking with me!” I grew to love him over those two years Pam and I taught him, or should I say, “the years we were taught by him”! Although Travis was on this Earth for only 17 years, it is a testimony to you and Paul and to Travis, as to how many lives his has touched. My life was one of them. Thank You, Lord, for the life of Travis and the profession of faith he made to You at Isabella Baptist Church. 🙏💕

Maria, my first memory of Travis was the year we moved ed to Sylvester. Watching him struggle to walk up our driveway in that duck costume on Halloween was hilarious. He was a beautiful boy. His quick smile and sparkling eyes spread happiness wherever he was and he was never was too busy to say hello and exchange a few words. He had a kind heart and truly cared about others. John and I were proud to watch him grow into a promising young man. I am so deeply sorry for your tragic loss and know I have no words to bring comfort. I can only say you have the support of a strong community in addition to your family and in time you will take strength from them as you need it. You and your family are in my prayers.
