“ I loved Van Jr. He was brilliant, with a mind for statistics that would impress the best baseball writers. He read about history, and he loved our country. He was competitive -- we both loved playing basketball; I was good, but he was better. He loved to rib me about beating me, and we'd laugh about it because I hate to lose, and I just wasn't good enough to beat him often. On the rare occasion I did, I of course ribbed him mercilessly. The thing that's most poignant when I think of him is his fierce love and loyalty for his family -- he so deeply loved his parents and sister and his daughter. He taught me a few things, but I suppose the thing he taught me most is I should have told him how much I cared for and admired him. He deserved that.

Nick Hodge - December 29, 2023 at 10:26 AM

Thank you Nick for saying that. Van loved you too. God bless you.

“ Pat and Vann Hodge, It has been a great honor for me, to have shared our lives with yours, we suffered the same things, for the same reasons, and now death has taken away our most precious part of our lives, and we now join both of you, to share with you, the same things I shared with Jr. If he only retained a portion of my teachings, he has been able to make it to the very end; I hope the Scriptures God gave me this morning for Jr, will also become your consolation and peace; I myself will be joining those gone before us, and selebrate eternal live with the one who made it possible for us, The Great King of the Universe.
please contact me at anytime,if you need my prayers, which are with you at this very moment. Thanks for all the benefits we received from all of you, in the past years, and the years to come. I love all of You God bless

Elio M Fernandez - December 27, 2023 at 07:19 AM

Thank you Elio. Van loved you and always enjoyed his talks with you. The loss is so excruciating right now. I feel like incant breath at times, but I have been praying fervently to God for comfort for myself, my parents and family and friends. What an honor for my brother Van to celebrate his rebirth on the day our Savior was born. To know he is celebrating in heaven on Jesus' birthday has got to be amazing. Please continue to pray for my parents and myself as we begin to navigate life without him. God bless you and thank you for always being such a great teacher to my brother of the Holy Scriptures and for loving him.

*Hope for the living and the dead. Isaiah chapter 61.
The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me;
Because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings (good news) unto the meek (poor) he hath sent me to bind up (heal) the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;
to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord,
and the day of vengeance of our God;
to comfort all that mourn;
to appoint (console) unto them that mourn in Zion to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness;
that they might be called trees of righteousness,
the planting of the Lord, that he might be glorified.
This is an eternal promise, let us claime it, if we are willing to obey it. Amen*
