“ What a life well lived! I met Mrs. Howell when we lived across the road from her. She was a sweet lady then, and still just as sweet in her final days. 100 years of life offers so much experience, and even more loss, as she outlived so many friends and loved ones. I imagine she is having an amazing, Heavenly reunion right about now! Praying for those she leaves behind. ”

“ Aunt Vera was my father's oldest sister. She helped raise him and all his younger siblings. She will always hold a special place in my heart. She is in Heaven where she has wanted to be for so long. I am certain that Uncle Carlton, my Daddy and all her other siblings were waiting with open arms for her arrival.

Oh what a wonderful lady Vera was. I loved her dearly. She was married to my first cousin, Carl Howell, I know he would say she was a great wife and mother. Love to Carlton and all Vera's family. May God bless you all.
